Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) Parental Consent Form

To comply with COPPA guidelines and for the protection of minors, this form must be completed to allow minors under 13 years of age to register an account on the FFA Agricultural Career Network.

As a registered member, your child will have access to provide membership roster data including name, home address, age, e-mail addresses, phone numbers, birthdate, gender, ethnicity, race, residence type, high school graduation year, grade level and t-shirt size. This information, which may be shared with state associations and local chapters, is used to help students complete applications for awards and recognition, create participation portfolios, deliver the FFA magazine to students' home addresses and notify students and their parents and/or guardians of opportunities supportive of the educational mission and objectives of the FFA.

You may verify your consent of your child's registration and use of the site in accordance with our privacy policy (www.ffa.org/privacypolicy) as follows:

I represent and warrant that the information provided below is true and accurate and is provided for the purpose of consenting to my child's registration with the FFA Agricultural Career Network.

Privacy of Children

The Organization and the Foundation provide additional privacy protections when children visit the website. We do not knowingly collect, maintain or store personal information from or about children under the age of 13 without a parent's and/or legal guardian's consent, except in limited circumstances authorized by law and described in this notice. If you are under the age of 18, please read this privacy policy with a parent or legal guardian. If you are under the age of 13, your FFA advisor and the National FFA Organization must have your parent's or legal guardian's consent before collecting any personal information.

Information collected from children consists of membership roster data including name, home address, age, e-mail addresses, phone numbers, birthdate, gender, ethnicity, race, residence type, high school graduation year, grade level and t-shirt size. This information, which may be shared with state associations and local chapters, is used to help students complete applications for awards and recognition, create participation portfolios, deliver the FFA magazine to students' home addresses and notify students and their parents and/or guardians of opportunities supportive of the educational mission and objectives of the FFA. We do not require a child to disclose more information than is reasonably necessary to participate in the foregoing activities. We do not disclose information collected from children to unaffiliated third parties.

Parents and legal guardians may review personal information we have collected about their child, request deletion or refuse to allow further collection or use of the information. To do so, please contact the National FFA Organization, 6060 FFA Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46268, privacy@ffa.org, 317-802-6060.
