

You will be given a prompt similar to this when you enter the preparation room.

Media Round Example Questions:

Example 1

You have been asked to write a short 250 word article for the FFA New Horizons over how FFA is providing opportunities for every FFA member. The current national officer team has chosen to promote a platform of acceptance when it comes to diversity and inclusion and they would like you to address this in your article. The article needs to also include information that proves FFA is not only providing opportunities for premier leadership but it is also taking large steps to develop better personal growth while always emphasizing career success within the industry of agriculture.

Example 2

You have been asked to participate in a conference call with New Mexico Secretary of Agriculture, Jeff Witte, about how FFA members are making a difference in the lives of students throughout the nation through the active use of the vision statement. Specifically, they would like to know how FFA members are growing leaders, building communities and strengthening agriculture.